Says It Is Open Secret That
Third Party Does Not Expect to Win.

> Beverly Mass. October 20.-President Taft to-night issued a statement predicting Republican victory next month, and declaring it "obvious that either the Republican or the Democratic nominees will be elected." He asserts it to be an open secret that "the third party does not expect vic-mistakes, so far as it has been taught; but somehow the obstinate pupil comes forward every four years to be taught again.

"I am glad to say, however, that many Democrats have learned their lesson and are refusing to leave the firm ground of national prosperity for the quagmire of business disruption, trade depression and commercial and industrial depletion. From all parts of the country assurances are equing that Democrats intend to vote for the particular candidates and a continuour institutions supported by the Del ocratic candidates and their alle candidates and their allies. ocratic candidates and their allies.
Democratic workingmen refuse to be led from the factory and good wages of 1912 back to the Democratic hard times of 1893-'97. They prefer independence and money in the savings banks to loss of employment and dependence on charity.

Democratic business men feel the same way. They know that when in-dustries languish, their business lan-guishes, too. The pay envelopes are the feeders of trade in every form. When they are empty or scrimped the biggest department store feels the effect, as well as the corner grocer.

"Well, let me glance at some of the drift. Our home market has drifted from $7,000,000,000 in 1870 to $33,000,-000,000—not a bad drift, that. And it is this magnificent home market, without equal in the past or present, that the Democrata propose to dismember and disorganize and invite every na-

"Then, look at our foreign trade.
A favorite Democratic argument is that Republicans build up and cultivate the home market at the expense of our foreign commerce, when the fact is that the growth of foreign trade has almost kept proportionate pace with the domestic, from $1,000,000,000 in 1870 to $4,000,000,000 in 1912. "Then, look at our foreign

The American manufacturer and the American the country has ever known. It has intrusted with duties faithfully a American manufacturer and the American worker would not have much can worker would not have much spirit left for invading the foreign market if deprived by a Democration market if deprived by a Democration market of all more than equal in purchasing power to all Europe, the home market, which they now control, thanks to the Republican protective tariff. And this unprecedented growth of our foreign trade is accompanied by expansion as unprecedented growth of our foreign trade is accompanied by expansion as unprecedented in our home trade from one end of the country to the other. It is no sudden inflation, but a gradual advance under favorable conditions, from prostration in 1967 to prosperity as great as 1912. In the Pittsburgh district alone I understand there is a demand for at least 30,000 workers in excess of the number worklable. American manufacturer and the Ame

Every day the Northern Pacific is carrying 1,000,000 bushels, so that the conveyance by the railroad of the farmers grain from the region of the farmers grain from the region tributary to the Northern Pacific to that point of distribution will require 157 days. This wast crep is worth in excess of $100,000,000 to the farmers producing it.

Other industries are equally active, and altogether metional conditions and prospects were noticed to apply to their political choice the same good judgment and products traveled the house good judgment and products the product the farmers of the United States, Mr. Yoakum said, something like $510,000,000 annually in interest on their leading, with order of the region of the first said that a carload of water-melons not obtain the region of the military to the farmers of the United States, Mr. Yoakum said, something like $510,000,000 annually in interest on their leading to their pacific to make their leading, which is $200,000,000 annually in interest on their leading their states, and it should be.

Makes Campaign Speeches.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., October 22.—Offi-cers of the Business Men's Association of Winchester and Frederick County declare that from an industrial and commercial point of view, nothing better could have been done to advance those interests in Winchester and its immediate vicinity than the building of the connecting link between the Baltimore and Ohio and the Cumberland Vailey Railroads, which is now in progress in the northern suburbs of this city. The association long ago had assurances that new industries would be built in Winchester in event the railroads made the connection, and now that the work is being done the officers of the society have taken up the matter of obtaining locations for a number of manufacturing enterprises, whose promoters are much pleased with the opportunities offered here. While the new connection will be used principally for freight traffic, it will also be available for passenger service whenever it is desired. of Winchester and Frederick County

The President reviews business conditions, which he says are unprecedentedly prosperous, and asserts the belief that the sober judgment of the voters will continue present conditions. The statement continues:

"Fifty-two years ago seceders from the Union thought they were facing a divided North and would win an easy victory. There had been division among the loyal people, but all united in the face of the common danger, and in addition a great number of Democrats joined the Republicans in the successful struggle for the nation's life. Then it was said by prominent critics that the ship of state was drifting. It drifted—yes—with Lincoln's successors it has sailed on, propelled by the winds of prosperity, save when its voyage has been halted by just such a visitation of storm and stress of torn protection sails and belief that ithe Swenth District, he is certain of being re-elected in November, as we when its voyage has been halted by just such a visitation of storm and stress of torn protection sails and belief that the Democratic attional circular services. "Our friends, the enemy, say that the Democracy has learned its mistakes and does not mean to repeat them. This is in some measure true as to the past, and the Republican party has had a difficult, if successful, task in teaching the Democracy its mistakes, so far as it has been taught;

Between fifteen and twenty young negro men and women were caught several nights ago by the local police in a house near the heast of the city while a big game of craps was in progress. The police landed the majority of the gang, but some got away, and in their flight they tore out window sashes, knocked down fences and upset a pig pen, liberating a number of porkers, which ran squealing through the streets at the dead hour of night and awakening scores of downtown residents. All who have been captured have been fined in Police Court. One by one the crappiets are picked up by the police and fined, and as they appear in court they give the names of others still at large.

Banished from Winchester for 365 days from yesterday was the sentence imposed upon William Shreck, of Frederick County, in court here. Judge Beverley told the prisoner, who had been arrested for drunkenness, that he was tired of looking at him and weary of writing his name in the docket book. When told that he would be sentenced to a year's work on the public roads if he came back within a twelvemonth. Shreck promised to be missing from his old haunts for that length of time.
